"Proud to be serving as part of your family's healthcare"

When you come to Lott Chiropractic Clinic for treatment you entrust us with personal health and insurance information. This is necessary because we rely on you as the best and most important source of information about you. As a service to our valued patients, we handle your insurance submissions whenever possible or feasible. A majority of the time this is done electronically.

Our Privacy Principles:

We do not provide your personal information to unauthorized persons or organizations outside our clinic. We do not share your medical information with anyone unless you expressly authorize it, or we are authorized or required by law to do so.

We maintain safeguards to protect your information, physically and electronically so you can be assured that your information is safe.

Any information we collect from you will be handled appropriately to ensure the best quality of care and service throughout the entire process from treatment to insurance response to billing payment.

We may contact you using the phone numbers or email addresses you provide to us. By supplying this information, you agree that Dr. Lott & his staff are at liberty to leave messages, which may contain information related to your healthcare, via these modes of communication.

Serving as part of your family's healthcare is a privilege we take seriously.
Thank you for entrusting your healthcare to us.

Sincerely,
Dr. Lott and the Lott Chiropractic Clinic Staff

I hereby authorize the release of my Personal Health, Billing/Insurance, and/or Contact information to these individuals, if they request it for any reason:
